A high quality, thoughtful approach to solving problems. I like the focus on the importance of decision making in society, and the role of local governmental decisions in the quality of our roads, school, and other services.

National Merit Scholarship Semifinalist 2016 Student Selected Esteemed Teacher

October 14, 2015

Dear Ms. Wilhelm,

I would like to take this opportunity to say Congratulations! The National Merit Semifinalists are once again honoring the teachers they feel have made a significant contribution to their academic achievements. Each Semifinalist was asked to name the elementary and secondary teacher who had the greatest impact on his or her success.

Vedran Madziosmanovic has named you as a teacher who made a significant and positive impact on his academic life. He would like to formally honor you with a special award at the School Board meeting on Monday, November 9th. The ceremony will be held at Wayzata City Hall beginning at 7:00 P.M. We ask that you please arrive by 6:15 for a photo of you and Vedran. The School Board will begin the business portion of their meeting at 5:30 p.m., and finish with the National Merit recognition.

Please contact me by email sue.iverson@wayzata.k12.mn.us or call me at 763-745-6605 to confirm receipt of this letter and to let me know if you will be able to attend the meeting on November 9th.

Congratulations again on this special honor and thank you for being a special part of Vedran's academic achievements.

Sincerely,

Sue Iverson

"ReadWriteThink is a big celebration of books and authors-and the nicest part is that everything is based on theory found in professional reading for teachers. The site allows teachers to stand on the shoulders of authors while empowering children to do the same. It is like one big book club with authors, illustrators, students, and teachers all working and publishing together!"

Before she retired, bringing books to life was a constant theme in Carolyn's classroom, where students imaginatively and thoughtfully approached literature. Books in her classroom had distinguished lives as the stories and authors mentored and guided student and teacher work in reading, writing, performing, and illustrating writers' work.

Carolyn Wilhelm is a National Board Certified Teacher and an NCTE member. She has been actively involved in Phi Delta Kappa, for which she has served as newsletter editor and secretary. She has a BS in Elementary Education, an MS in Special Studies of Gifted Children, and an MA in Curriculum and Instruction K-12. She has taught grades one, two, three, four, and five, as well as gifted education. She has been a free-lance curriculum writer since 1974.
