

Reading Comprehension Strategy Bookmarks

 Reading Comprehension Strategies Discussion Guide

 Connect: Spinner the Spider
What is your connection with the text? How does this book remind you of another book? Now that you read this, what makes more sense in your own life?

 Ask Questions: Questioning Owl
What questions did you ask yourself while reading to help understand the text?

 Infer: Leggy the Inking Lizard
What do you think the author was really saying?

 Compare and Contrast: Comparing Crab
How were the characters, setting, events, or facts alike? How were they different?

 Dig Deeper: Check-a-Roo
How did using nonfiction text conventions help you understand what you read?

 Determine Importance: Digger the Dog
What are three important things you learned today while reading?

 Synthesize: Jabber the Retriever
How did your understanding of the book change as you learned more about the characters and events?

 New Vocabulary: Fancy Nancy
Did you add any wonderful new words to your own vocabulary?

 By Carolyn Wilhelm, Wise Owl Factory

 Reading Comprehension Strategies Discussion Guide

 Connect: Spinner the Spider
What is your connection with the text? How does this book remind you of another book? Now that you read this, what makes more sense in your own life?

 Ask Questions: Questioning Owl
What questions did you ask yourself while reading to help understand the text?

 Infer: Leggy the Inking Lizard
What do you think the author was really saying?

 Compare and Contrast: Comparing Crab
How were the characters, setting, events, or facts alike? How were they different?

 Dig Deeper: Check-a-Roo
How did using nonfiction text conventions help you understand what you read?

 Determine Importance: Digger the Dog
What are three important things you learned today while reading?

 Synthesize: Jabber the Retriever
How did your understanding of the book change as you learned more about the characters and events?

 New Vocabulary: Fancy Nancy
Did you add any wonderful new words to your own vocabulary?

 By Carolyn Wilhelm, Wise Owl Factory ©2015

 Reading Comprehension Strategies Discussion Guide

 Connect: Spinner the Spider
What is your connection with the text? How does this book remind you of another book? Now that you read this, what makes more sense in your own life?

 Ask Questions: Questioning Owl
What questions did you ask yourself while reading to help understand the text?

 Infer: Leggy the Inking Lizard
What do you think the author was really saying?

 Compare and Contrast: Comparing Crab
How were the characters, setting, events, or facts alike? How were they different?

 Dig Deeper: Check-a-Roo
How did using nonfiction text conventions help you understand what you read?

 Determine Importance: Digger the Dog
What are three important things you learned today while reading?

 Synthesize: Jabber the Retriever
How did your understanding of the book change as you learned more about the characters and events?

 New Vocabulary: Fancy Nancy
Did you add any wonderful new words to your own vocabulary?

 By Carolyn Wilhelm, Wise Owl Factory ©2015